COLLECT

May we as teachers believe in our students, the citizens of tomorrow and the guardians of our democracy. Let us believe in the dignity of teaching, and the joy of serving others. Life and education are synonymous. We are molding human destinies. May we instill in our students an appreciation for all that makes life large and lovely. May we believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the divine joy of living.—Katharine Jennison.
